

Nichias Environmental Charter

NICHIAS AUTOPARTS EUROPE a.s. it improves its environmental management, encourages recycling and contributes to the use of insulation and protection technologies.

Environmental commitment

1. Management of NICHIAS AUTOPARTS EUROPE a.s. it pledges its commitment to continually improving its environmental management system and environmental protection
2. 1. We place great emphasis on protecting the environment and improving the use of appropriate materials when designing and developing new products, in manufacturing, shipping, use and end-of-life products as a commitment to protecting the environment and preventing environmental pollution to increase our environmental performance.
3. 2. We are interested in relevant binding requirements of all interested parties within the context of our company and we guarantee the compliance of our activities in the implementation of products and services with the applicable legislation of Czech and related European law.
4. 3. We undertake to fulfill other requirements to which the Company is committed and which relate to our environmental risks and aspects, their impacts on our production activities.
5. 4. We educate, educate and lead our workers to protect the environment
6. setting the rules for "3R" - Reduce, Reuse, Recycling.
7. energy and natural resource management, based on the individual and thoughtful approach of each employee
8. sufficient information for employees to prevent and manage emergency situations
9. 5. We strive to communicate openly with our surroundings and, in accordance with the law, we provide information on all of our activities affecting the environment.

Schválil:

Ing. Zdeněk Pošák - Director
NICHIAS AUTOPARTS EUROPE a.s.

Procedure: EM-02, page 1
Datum vydání: 29.6.2010
Revize č. 4. ze dne 1.8.2017